Jaycees Present Annual Awards

Lawrence, Hall Honored

The presentation of awards to two civic leaders highlighted the annual Bosses' Night dinner of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Wednesday at the Country Club.

Mayor Fred P. Lawrence received the Civic Service Award, which goes to a man over 35 for outstanding service to the community, and Roger A. Hall, secretary and assistant sales manager of the Edwin M. Knowles China Co., was named winner of the Distinguished Service Award for a man under 35.

Mayor Lawrence, right, is shown receiving congratulations from Sydney C. Porter Jr., immediate past president of the Jaycees, who presented him with the plaque.

William D. Christopher, vice president and sales manager of Knowles, accepted the DSA on behalf of Hall who is recuperating in Florida from a recent illness.

—:—

JOHN A. JONES of the Weirton Steel Co. was guest speaker. About 150 were present.

Lawrence was given recognition for his service as mayor and the "many personal sacrifices" he has shouldered in carrying out his official duties. Porter commented, in making the presentation: "This gives us the opportunity to give him a pat on the back for a job well done."

Lawrence became a charter member of the Jaycees in 1939 and is a past president of the organization. A World War II veteran, he received the DSA in 1941. He has served as chairman of Boy Scout fund drives, is a board member of the YMCA and a member of the Civic Music Association, Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, City Hospital board and the Municipal League. Executions Continue To Rise In Cuba

To Go On Regardless Of World Opinion, Rebel Chief Declares

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Fresh dispatches today told of the execution of 10 more men by order of revolutionary courts, boosting the reported toll to 195.

The rebel leader, Fidel Castro, said the executions will continue, regardless of world opinion about the summary justice accorded captive followers of ex-President Fulgencia Batista who are adjudged major war criminals.

"We have given orders to shoot every one of these murderers," Castro declared Wednesday night.

Some convicted prisoners are getting prison terms. A few are being freed. A tribunal at Santiago Wednesday provisionally freed five—three civilians and two military men.

Criticism mounted abroad of the hurried military trials and firing squad deaths. But the rebel chieftain, asked by newsmen if the executions would be stopped, replied:

"No. To the contrary, we have given orders to shoot every one of these murderers. And if we have to battle world opinion to mete out justice, we are prepared to do it."

Advices from Oriente province said five former military men were executed by a firing squad at Bayamo and five other followers of Batista were executed at Holguin.

Castro had scheduled a news conference later in the evening but called it off with word that he was ill. The nature of his illness was not discolsed, but the strenuous life he has led during the past two weeks was probably telling on him.

Reports reaching Havana said 19 persons were put to death in Camaguey, 320 miles east of Havana, for political murders and tortures during the regime of ousted dictator Fulgencio Bastista.

Five more executions were reported from Manzanillo, in Oriente province, where eight others were shot Monday. Three former Batista soldiers were condemned to death at Colon, in west Cuba's Matanzas province.

Estimates of those in jail awaiting trial rose to between 4,000 and 6,000. Castro's forces were still hunting perhaps 5,000 fugitive soldiers, police and informers accused of carrying on the dictator's repression.

As yet, no trials or executions had been reported in Havana. Provisional President Manual Urrutia's government continued to give assurance that newsmen would be furnished names of the accused and charges against them and invited to watch the trials. But the military courts in the provinces apparently were going ahead full steam without waiting for publicity.

ARSON SUSPECTED. Authorities in Pittsburgh arrested one man for questioning as an arson suspect after three early morning fires today in Pittsburgh. Several firemen were overcome by smoke in the blazes. Fireman Roy Kratt is shown receiving first aid at an apartment fire. (UPI Telephoto)

Statements Do Not Rule Out Change

Dulles Says Free Elections 'Natural Method' For Unity

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has reassured West Germany that it is standing pat — for the time being, at least — on the policy of seeking German reunification through free, all-German elections.

Official statements, however, did not rule out the possibility of future revision of this policy.

The West German government of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer sought more information after Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told a news conference that free elections were the "natural method" but not the only possible way of merging the two parts of Germany into a single nation again.

This was interpreted as meaning that the stand for free elections might be modified if some other practical avenue to unification opened up in prospective negotiations with the Soviet Union.

It is understood that various new ideas relating to the German problem are under discussion in the State Department, even though all in the end could be discarded.

West German Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe and Herbert Dittmann, top-ranking emissary from the German Foreign Office, conferred with Dulles for an hour Wednesday.

Grewe then issued this statement, saying that it had Dulles' full approval: "The secretary reaffirmed that it is the policy of the United States government to seek reunification of Germany through free elections."

State Department press officer Lincoln White also issued a statement saying, "There is no change in the United States position of support for free elections as the best and most logical method of achieving a true and workable reunification of Germany."

The Soviets are advocating a German settlement which would demilitarize and isolate that nation as a buffer zone in central Europe.

Widespread Oil Industry Strikes Loom

Settlement Appears At Hand In Long Harvester Walkout

By The Associated Press

The nation's largest strike, involving 37,000 International Harvester Co. workers, appeared near an end today but a forecast of widespread walkouts in the oil industry darkened the labor picture.

Negotiators for the Harvester Company and the striking United Auto Workers have reached an agreement on a three-year contract. The union's Harvester council meets Friday to vote on the terms and ratification appeared likely, ending the costly two-month strike.

The walkout involved the big farm implement firm's 25 factories, transfer points and depots.

On the debit side of the labor news, O. A. Knight, president of the Oil Chemical and Atomic Workers, with a membership of 105,000 in the oil industry, said widespread strikes are likely to develop early next week.

Knight's prediction came as federal mediators in Kansas City reported no progress in contract talks between the Sinclair Oil Co. and the union representing 9,500 of its workers.

Strike notices which expire at midnight Saturday have been filed with Sinclair and most of the 600 individual oil plants with which the union has contracts.

The Sinclair contract is the only one negotiated on a nationwide

6 Navy Men Fatally Hurt In Collision

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — A Navy vehicle tore into a truck loaded with frozen orange juice Wednesday. Six young enlisted men were killed. Three others were injured.

The Navy men were riding in a carryall — similar to a station wagon — which collided with the truck at an intersection about 12 miles west of Pensacola.

State trooper G. L. Hill said the carryall ran a stop sign on a secondary road. The truck driver, Robert Albaugh, 30, Lynnwood, Calif., was not hurt.

The Navy said the nine men were members of a work party which was returning from Barin Field, near Foley, Ala., to their station at Whiting Field, near Pensacola. Barin, recently deactivated, and Whiting are auxiliaries of the Pensacola Naval Air Station.

Heifer Theft Suspect Held

Hammondsville Man Jailed For Larceny

A 24-year-old Hammondsville man has been charged with grand larceny and receiving stolen property in connection with the recent theft of two heifers from a Salineville area farm.

Delva Cronin, a brick firm employe, is slated for a preliminary hearing Friday afternoon before County Judge James L. MacDonald at Lisbon, and is being held at the County Jail in lieu of $2,500 bond on each of the two charges.

Sheriff Russell VanFossan said Cronin was taken into custody Tuesday night at the McLain Fire Brick Co. works at Wellsville after an Irondale man reported Cronin had sold him a 140-pound beef carcass Dec. 29.

Bond for Cronin was set by Judge MacDonald yesterday afternoon, and the hearing scheduled Friday to enable the defendant to obtain counsel.

The prize heifers were stolen from the farm of Robert Beverly of Washington Twonship Dec. 28. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Palmer and Keith Kirbaugh of Hammondsville were turned over to the Monroe County authorities over the weekend in connection with cattle thefts at Jerusalem, but they denied taking cattle in Columbiana County.

Ike And GOP To Fight For 3 Programs

Fighting Defense Set For Space, Missile And Security Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and top Republican spokesmen appeared ready today with a fighting defense of the administration's space, missile and security programs.

Key leaders in the new and heavily Democratic Congress already have promised searching and critical investigations into all phases of the Eisenhower defense policies and programs.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon has indirectly invited such an investigation, and expressed to fellow Republicans confidence that the programs will stand up under the scrutiny.

Both the President and the new Republican Senate leader, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, defended the programs publicly Wednesday.

Eisenhower told a National Press Club luncheon that this country had "made remarkable progress" in the field of long-range missiles.

As to the Soviet's accomplishments in this field, he said "If we did not believe that they were somewhat ahead in certain phases, we would indeed be a little stupid, because they have been working at it for many years, and our urgent work in this field on the long-range missile has started only something like four years ago."

About the time Eisenhower was speaking, Dirksen replied in the Senate to Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo), who said Monday the administration is trying "to lull people into a state of complacency not justified by the facts."

Symington was secretary of the Air Force under former President Truman, and has been a frequent critic of defense policies.

Dirksen suggested that Symington or some other Truman administration spokesman should admit publicly that for six years, "while our missile programs were virtually nonexistent the Soviet program was going forward full tilt."

This accounted for any lag behind the Soviets, Dirksen contended. He quoted statements of Dr. Werner von Braun, German-born Army missiles expert, to support that contention.

Auto's Plunge In Run Linked To Heavy Fog

Parked Cars Struck In East End; Driver Blames Blowout

An auto swerved off Dresden Ave. and dived into nearby Carpenters Run early today when the driver suddenly encountered a patch of heavy fog and an East End crash that damaged two parked cars Wednesday night was blamed on a tire blowout on a passing auto.

Victor W. Roby, 603 Marcus St., apparently escaped unhurt when his 1953 club coupe plunged into the stream that parallels Dresden Ave. about 5:54 this morning. Roby told police he was traveling north about 20 miles an hour when he suddenly ran into a patch of fog. He swerved off the road and the car went into the run, causing extensive damage, police said.

The East End crash damaged parked 1955 coupes owned by Ed Williams, 1089½ Mapletree St., and Bernard Arnold of Anderson Blvd. The cars were struck by a 1953 sedan driven by William C. Rea, 57, of 1259 Erie St., police said.

Rea told police he had just pulled away from a parking place when the right front tire of his auto blew out, causing it to strike the two coupes.

An auto struck a utility pole at Pennsylvania and Sylvan Aves. at 2:05 this morning, but the driver left the scene before the arrival of police.

Officers said the pole was struck

'Inviting' Race Brings Arrest For Motorist

A motorist who invited a race with another driver Wednesday night while their two cars were halted side by side for a traffic light on W. 8th St. sped off toward Wellsville at a 70-mile-an-hour clip —then found the man dogging his tail was a state patrolman who handed him a citation for speeding.

Riley E. Tice of Toronto pleaded guilty to the speeding charge today in Municipal Court, drawing a fine of $10 and costs.

Here's how the State Highway Patrol reported the incident. Tice's auto and a 1953 model were halted side by side on W. 8th St., waiting for the traffic light at Lisbon St. to change. A passenger in Tice's car waved his arm out of the window toward the driver of the other car, obviously inviting a race along the four-lane road.

Then Tice headed for Wellsville at a fast clip, but the other driver did not give chase. It was the state patrolman, who halted him at the Wellsville city limits and handed him a citation. The incident occurred just before midnight, when the high speed was especially hazardous because of rain and fog, the patrol said.

Algeria Cease Fire Hinted By De Gaulle

PARIS (AP) — France's new Parliament goes back to work today to hear messages from President de Gaulle and Premier Michel Debre.

There was intense speculation that De Gaulle would give an official word on rumors that new overtures had been made for a cease-fire in Algeria.

The cease-fire rumors had persisted despite denials on all sides of any contacts with the Algerian rebels to discuss a halt in their four-year-old fight for freedom. The rebels say a cease-fire can come only through French agreement to discuss independence for Algeria.

The assembly was to get its first chance to discuss government policies after 7½ months of De Gaulle's one-man rule before Debre calls for a vote on his program.

The constitution of the new Fifth Republic does not require parliamentary approval of Debre's new government. He scheduled the session to hear his program out of politeness and sought the confidence vote only as a matter of principle.

There was no danger of Debre's program being rejected since a big majority of deputies were elected as De Gaulle supporters.

4 Youths Hurt When Car Hits Bridge In Fog

Wellsville Resident Injured Critically In Ohioville Accident

Four area young people were injured — one critically — when their car smashed into a bridge abutment in heavy fog on Route 168 north of Ohioville about 2:20 a. m. today.

Curtis Shanks, 18, of 10th St., Wellsville, is in "poor" condition at City Hospital with a skull fracture and other injuries.

Ohio Township Constable Bernard Zlatovich said a car driven by Shirley Wolfe, 17, of 1084 Midland Ave., Midland, was headed south on Route 168 when she ran into a thick patch of fog in a valley and struck the concrete abutment.

She is in "fair" condition at the hospital with a fractured right ankle and cuts and bruises of the knees, arms and face. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wolfe of Midland.

James Peterson, 19, of Bloomfield, also a passenger, is in "fairly good" condition with a back injury. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Peterson.

Shanks, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Shanks, also suffered cuts and bruises of the face and right ear and shock.

Robert Hargreaves, 19, of 312 Broadway, Wellsville, suffered a cut of the ankle and was treated at the emergency hospital of the Crucible Steel Co. works at Midland where the others were given treatment before being transferred to City Hospital.

Constable Zlatovich said the girl apparently lost sight of the roadway in the heavy fog and the car rammed the corner of the bridge,

Director Seen As Consultant

Maggianetti Agrees To Aid If He Leaves

If Safety-Service Director Dan Maggianetti decides not to reconsider his resignation, he has agreed to continue to serve East Liverpool "in an advisory capacity" for the balance of Mayor Fred P. Lawrence's term.

The mayor announced that decision today, pointing out that Maggianetti will be available for advice and suggestions on municipal problems — particularly law enforcement — despite the fact he may be residing in another city.

At the same time, the director advised the mayor he will have a decision by the end of the week on a request that he withdraw a resignation that was to take effect Monday and remain in his present job at a reduced salary. Although he was to leave his post last Monday, the director accepted the mayor's suggestion that he remain "a week or so" while reconsidering.

"Dan expects to be not more than an hour's drive away, wherever he goes, so he will be readily available to East Liverpool for advice and consultation," the mayor said.

Maggianetti Wins Civil Service O.K.

Safety - Service Director Dan Maggianetti's reinstatement on the Youngstown police department was authorized by the Civil Service Commission there Tuesday, acting on an application he filed shortly after resigning his East Liverpool post Dec. 15.

Negley Man Sentenced In Holdup Of Grocery

Thomas Holbrook of Negley pleaded guilty to armed robbery Wednesday and was sentenced by Judge Morgan Sohn of Beaver County Court to 5-10 years in prison.

Delmar Nickels of Niles pleaded guilty to being an accessory after the fact and was fined $150 and costs and given a 4-month term in the Beaver County Jail.

They held up Bloor's Market on Darlington Rd. in Chippewa Township last September and took $500. The store owner followed the two and found them in a tavern.

He called police, who discovered later that weapons used in the robbery were stolen from Helman's Sport Center at East Palestine.

1,500 Proposed Laws Seen

Legislature Sets March 5 Deadline To Propose Bills

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's lawmakers have decided to set a March 5 deadline on the introduction of bills in this session. That's seven weeks from today.

By the time that date rolls around, possibly 1,500 proposed laws could be before the Senate and House.

As the Legislature wound up its second straight short work week Wednesday, the total of bills introduced reached 71.

It is likely that hearings on these and other bills will get under way the week beginning Jan. 25.

Bills already in the hopper indicate a session of lively controversy.

Rep. B. A. Broughton (R-Geauga) proposes to prohibit public school teachers from wearing religious garb in the classroom. Former Atty. Gen. William Saxbe ruled just before the November election that Catholic nuns employed in public schools could wear the garb of their order in classrooms. The ruling drew a number of protests from Protestant groups.

Rep. Thomas J. Barrett (D Mahoning) proposes to repeal the law which permits local option elections on the sale of 3.2 beer.

Rep. Richard B. Metcalf (R-Franklin) wants to establish under state law an offense of aggravated assault carrying a one-to-

Congress Group Wants Action On Cuban Killings

WASHINGTON (AP)—Asst. Secretary of State Roy Rubottom was summoned before a congressional committee today to face a demand for U.S. action to halt Cuba's postrevolution wave of killings.

Chairman Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) of the inquiring House Foreign Affairs subcommittee, said he wants to know "What the State Department is going to do to calm Castro down before he depopulates Cuba."

Fidel Castro led the revolution which deposed dictator Fulgencio Batista on New Year's Day.

Hays himself suggested tough U.S. economic measures against Cuba, short of sending in troops.

But Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich), a member of the subcommittee, said he didn't know what the United States could to about changing the way justice is handled in a foreign country. He did express hope that Cuba's government would provide fair trials.

The two spoke in interviews amid evidence of mounting congressional repugnance to the Cuban executions. In the Senate, Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind) said the killings create "the spectacle of a bearded monster stalking through Cuba."

Ailment In Eye Forces Graham To Rest Month

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—An eye ailment will force Billy Graham to take a month's rest and then curtail his future activities, says the evangelist's personal physician, Dr. Kenneth Gieser of Chicago.

Dr. Gieser said Wednesday night he and Mayo Clinic specialists had confirmed that Graham was suffering from a spastic swelling of blood vessels back of the retina of the left eye, cutting sight of that eye by about 50 per cent.

Grady Wilson, a Graham associate, said the minister would take the rest ordered by the doctors after remaining here the rest of this week for further examination and treatment.

Wilson said the evangelist was still planning on the Australian revival crusade, with its start set back to Feb. 15. Where Graham would spend the month's rest has not been decided.

JONES, NOTED world traveler, lecturer, journalist and head of the industrial relations department of Weirton Steel, discussed "The Young Executive In The Space Age."

He urged all young executives to meet the many challenges of the space age in which progress will be much faster than in the air age from Kitty Hawk to jet planes. "A young executive is in great danger unless he has a true perspective of things around him," he said.

"The pace of business in general is faster now than it was a few years back and, therefore, the executive of today must have a broader knowledge of all facets of his profession," he summarized.

Jones also touched on a tour of steel mills he had made with a delegation of 13 Russians. "They knew their jobs as steel men, and as individuals they were not bad guys," he said, but pointed out the Russians "were afraid of each other and everything" during their stay in this country.

They expect to reach our standard of living within the next generation, Jones said.

Guests included T. Fred Edwards, newly - elected president of the Chamber of Commerce, and E. R. Chandler, executive secretary of the Chamber.

Maj. William Murtaugh of the Salvation Army gave the invocation and benediction.

The committee in charge included Richard R. Emmerling, chairman, and William Webber.

Governor Orders 'Surplus' State Employes Fired

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The axe has fallen on what Gov. Michael V. DiSalle considers surplus state employes.

The governor told newsmen Wednesday he has ordered department heads to fire all unnecessary workers and hold the line on pay raises and promotions.

DiSalle said the order to hold up raises and promotions was made pending receipt of a salary classification study which will be submitted to the legislature.

Other points the governor made at a news conference:

1. He likely will ask the legislature to extend the temporary program of additional state unemployment compensation past the April date when it is scheduled to go out of existence. Under the program, jobless workers can collect up to 13 weeks of extra benefits after their regular 26 weeks of benefits are exhausted.

2. No bills to carry out the administration's program will reach the legislature until after his "state-of-the-state" message is delivered, possibly next week.

3. He and legislative leaders are discussing the possibility of combining the Legislative Service Commission and the Legislative Reference Bureau.

Hancock Judge Hurt In Crash At Weirton

Hancock County Circuit Court Judge J. Harold Brennan was hospitalized today with injuries suffered in an automobile accident Wednesday night at 7:30 on Scenic Dr. in Weirton.

He is listed in "satisfactory" condition at the Weirton General Hospital with a laceration of the lip and contusions of the chest. Judge Brennan was parking his car, which veered out of control and went over a slight embankment, police said.

His injury probably will necessitate a brief suspension of hearings for the January term of Circuit Court in session since Tuesday in New Cumberland. However, only two days remained in this session for setting arraignment dates before a recess until Feb. 23.

Lawyer's Motion Denied By Court On Disbarment

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — J. Harvey Crow of Urbana has until Wednesday to tell the Ohio Supreme Court why he should not be held in contempt for practicing law after disbarment.

The court Wednesday denied Crow's motion asking that the Ohio State Bar Assn. make its charges against him more definite.

The association contends that Crow was in contempt for continuing to practice law after his second disbarment. He was reinstated as an attorney in 1950 following his first disbarment in 1935 by Stark County Common Pleas Court. Six years later, Champaign County Common Pleas Court disbarred him for unethical acts.

In other actions, the Supreme Court:

Let stand the refusal of Lorain County courts to award damages to Robert F. Schwind for injuries received in the collision of a car driven by Gerald Heiser, in which Schwind was a passenger, and one operated by Sam Jones on Ohio 113 in 1955.

Magazine Salesman Suspect In Molesting

A New Philadelphia man, one of a group of magazine salesmen operating in the area, was taken into custody here this morning by sheriff's deputies, and transported to Lisbon for questioning concerning a complaint of a Lisbon area woman that a salesman had put his arm around her.

Late this morning deputies were holding the man at the County Jail, awaiting the arrival of the woman who would attempt to identify him. The incident occurred Tuesday.

Deputies said the man was picked up because his description was similar to that reported by the woman, but no charges have been filed.

The woman who reported the complaint said a man had placed his arm around her while soliciting for magazine subscriptions. Deputies came to East Liverpool when they learned a group of salesmen were operating in this district.

Bomb Threat Suspends Classes At High School

MILTON, W. Va. (AP) — A bomb threat resulted in suspension of classes at Milton High School today.

School Supt. Olin C. Nutter of Cabell County ordered the suspension after an anonymous caller told the School janitor in a 6 a. m. call that two bombs had been planted in the building.

An inch-by-inch search of the building was begun.

The bomb threat is one of several made in this area in recent months. None of the telephoned threats has been carried out.

On Tuesday, with no advance warning, a small homemade bomb exploded in a boys' rest room at Beverly Hills High School in Huntington. No one was injured and the school schedule was not altered.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove scratches from walnut furniture?

A. This can be done successfully by cutting a walnut or a Brazil nut kernel in half and rubbing the scratch vigorously with the freshly cut nut. The oil from the kernel will refinish the wood.

Q. What is the best way to use spices for flavoring stews?

A. Place the spices in the tea ball and put them in the stew to boil. As soon as the desired flavor is obtained, remove the tea ball.

The Cure Continues To Be A Mystery

An accident of timing has caused the secret of John L. Lewis' success in reaching an understanding with coal mine operators to be discussed in the Saturday Evening Post while The New York Times is describing hard times in the Kentucky-Virginia coal areas. In Harlan County, Ky., alone, reports the Times, more than 13,000 persons are destitute.

There seems to be only one answer to their problem — the harsh one of relocating them somewhere else, preferably in a community where they can quit being dependent on the coal industry for a living. Miners are not in demand. Their number is continuing to dwindle as coal mining becomes more efficient. The secret of John Lewis' success is not without its sad side.

The irony of the point of view that the president of United Mine Workers has shared with mine operators is that it envisions fewer and fewer miners getting higher and higher wages, while displaced miners get no wages at all.

The question that will be answered in 1959 is whether this same pattern is going to be repeated in other fields of employment. Reemployment is lagging behind the business pickup. There is beginning to be deep concern over the possibility that unemployment may not be reduced to 4 per cent of the total labor force, which is considered to be the irreducible minimum. At the close of 1958, it was closer to 6 per cent, than 4 per cent.

THERE IS deep concern about the effect of continued unemployment in relatively good times. Besides the inevitable pressure this would bring for sweeping changes in unemployment benefits, there would be agitation in Congress to beef up the Employment Act of 1946, which laid down a federal policy of promoting maximum employment, production and purchasing power.

This law is the potential instrument for large-scale federal intervention in the nation's economy. It could be interpreted as a legal mandate to experiment with a wide new range of government projects calculated to create employment artificially, if boom conditions failed to provide jobs for everybody looking for something to do.

The fact is that boom conditions easily could fail to provide jobs for unemployed coal miners and for hundreds of thousands of other persons who have been displaced by circumstances more accidental than the systematic mechanization of coal mining.

A BILL to assist depressed areas received congressional approval in the 1958 session of Congress but was pocket-vetoed by President Eisenhower. Its repassage will be sought this session, though in 1959 it is unlikely there will be widespread concern about recession.

Yet, unemployment is likely to be a major worry at a time when employment is increasing. No one knows what the cure is going to be. But it is a certainty that congressmen will be in a mood to try anything, if the malady persists.

Something To Stop The Pain

The most tremendous story of 1959, if it holds up, will be the announcement that two scientists at the National Institute of Health have developed a drug many times as effective as morphine, without corresponding side effects.

No governments will rise or fall. There will be no upturn or downturn in gross national product or fluctuation in vital statistics. But millions of human beings who have learned what pain can do to distort minds and bodies will take more hope from the announcement of a better pain-killer than they will take from any other story this year.

They will think of burned and mangled bodies that are brought into hospitals after accidents, of the incurably ill whose final days and hours can be made comfortable, of victims of arthritis and sufferers from migraine.

They will think of the horrors of acute addiction from the over-use of morphine and its related substances. They will think of the disproportion of pain in the world to things that can relieve pain — and they will welcome the hope of a substance that can bring a net reduction to the world's suffering.

There is no reason to doubt at the outset of another new year that there will be a full share of increases in suffering. That has never failed.

Needless Time Lag In Education

Joint adoption by Ohio's six state universities of a plan to get rid of a year's time in the transition from high school to college is a tribute to the Ford Foundation program that showed what could be done.

Hundreds of Ford Foundation students demonstrated that as much as two years could be cut out of the elapsed time of high school-college education. Using educational grants from the foundation, they went to cooperating colleges at the end of their sophomore year in high school and were able to make the grade in most cases. This made them eligible for the beginning of post-graduate work at the age when otherwise they would have been half through college.

The Ford students were hand-picked, but the students who will be permitted to skip their freshman year in Ohio's state universities will be hand-picked, too. Though they will be spared only a year of time, instead of two years, what they will gain in knowledge cannot be calculated. The one disadvantage of the Ford students was their immaturity when they arrived at college. This will not be a factor in the Ohio plan.

Eventually, all exceptional students will be pushed along in education as fast as they can go. Education never has been a matter of time, always a matter of comprehension. The bright minds that are going to be needed for the future do not have to hang on the educational tree until the calendar says it is time to pick them and put them to work. They can be put to work as soon as they are ready.

Deserved Recognition

Two deserving awards were made Wednesday night for community service during the Junior Chamber of Commerce dinner at the Country Club. The recipients were Mayor Fred P. Lawrence and Roger Hall.

Each has done more than his share to promote civic progress and each has set a goal which others might follow.

The occasion must have been especially gratifying to the mayor, who has tried to do so much for the city and in return has received so much unwarranted criticism.

The unmistaken sincerity of last night's standing ovation should have left no doubt in the mayor's mind, however, that his endeavors have been appreciated to the fullest by those interested in East Liverpool's present and future.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Deputy Premier Mikoyan is screduled to apper on "Meet The Press." Possible script:

Q. Mr. Mikoyan, how have you enjoyed your visit?

A. Up to this program it's been easy.

Q. (By Mae Craig). You were reported as having gazed intently at American doughnut displays. Will you carry back to Mr. Khrushchev a favorable report on the world doughnut situation?

A. I am sure there is no doughnut issue between the Soviet Union and the U.S. which cannot be settled peacefully.

Q. You showed a keen interest in our parking meters. Don't you have them in Russia?

A. No. We find we can make our people unhappy without them.

Q. Mr. Mikoyan, would you make a clear statement on what Russia will do if we don't get out of West Berlin?

A. Let's stick to doughnuts and meters. They can make less trouble for me.

Q. You have risen to Number Two man in Russia. Is that good?

A. From recent events I sometimes wonder.

Q. You are reputed to be a shrewd businessman. Is that true?

A. All I know is that whatever I'm selling Washington isn't buying.

Q. Would you sum up your accomplishments on this visit?

A. I outbid the feat of that nuclear submarine that went under the Polar ice.

Q. Surely it's not as cold in Washington as it is under the Polar ice, is it?

A. THAT'S WHAT YOU THINK!!!

A MARINE Major General, 22 times decorated for heroism, has been named head of the New York State Boxing Board. But when he meets the fight mob he will know what combat really is. ("From the halls of Montezuma to the shores of IBC." as it were.)

This is National Variety Week and it brings back memories when vaudeville was in its glory, when every act wanted to make "The Palace" and all cities of any size had at least one variety house.

Back home it was S. Z. Poli's place. It was there that, as a kid, we saw the Four Cohans, The Virginia Judge, Joe Welch, Eddie Foy, Moran and Mack, Victor Moore in "Change Your Act," Ed Wynn as a youthful comic dependent on funny hats, W. C. Fields and his cigar boxes, the Howard Brothers, Eva Tanguay ("Redhead, Redhead, Gingerbread head.") and Bert Lahr in a single as a cop. Irene Franklin, Nora Bayes, Jack Norworth, Rooney and Bent, Joe Jackson, Julian Eltinge and the Russell Brothers were others.

And there was Anette Kellerman in a tank act considered daring because she got into it in BLACK TIGHTS.

Mikoyan inspected Detroit auto plants. Hope he found a way to take the knock out of international relations.

"Na Gambling To Be Allowed in Cuba" — headline. Wanna bet?

Gov. Ribicoff of Connecticut has come out for austerity. The Nutmeg State was long a symbol of it but you'd never know the old place now. Nobody there has worn a celluloid collar or walked up one flight to save price of pair of pants in years. Big cities are shooting the works regardless of expense and an amazing thing is that little Connecticut towns, long frugal, are tossing money around, doubling assessments and socking taxpayers to a fare-thee-well.

Definition of Austerity is: "A condition in which a man sleeps in silk pajamas on an overstuffed bed while the state, city, town and village administration laughlingly think up new ways to tomahawk him."

How To Influence People–Not Win Friends

Hoffa Faces Court Penalties

By Victor Riesel

Unless Jim Hoffa learns the difference between defiance and contempt, he may wind up in jail shortly while a good chunk of the Teamster treasury lands in the U.S. Treasury. That may well be the cost to Hoffa and his union if he refuses in the next 90 days to obey 75 pages full of clean up orders from federal court appointed monitors.

Victor Riesel

Heavy fines could also be levied against Hoffa personally. All this would be punishment for contempt of court — one of three alternatives now being considered by the federal courts in their showdown with the man who lives by the creed that he need obey no one and recognize no force but his own.

The 75-page document, now in the hands of Federal Judge F. Dickinson Letts, is a detailed list of the orders from the monitors which Hoffa has ignored.

It is jammed full of statements that nothing has been done about forged checks, illegal voting, bribery, faulty financial auditing and the firing of friends with criminal records — just to mention the casual details.

THE COURT positively will expect Hoffa and the entire Teamster high command to obey every sentence of the new documented orders.

If the Teamster leadership doesn't chase every comma, every dash of these directives, Washington legal circles believe the court will consider either the contempt citation or one of two other alternate actions against the Teamster chiefs.

The court could simply remove the union's leaders. They would then be replaced by the old executive council — without Dave Beck, of course.

But much of that council still would be controlled by Brother Hoffa — who himself would be on the board as a vice president elected back in 1952. So that awakens no great enthusiasm in the court.

Or Judge Letts could replace with a set of trustees. These men would administer the union just as trustees in a commercial case run an estate. But this is some estate. It has 900 locals, 5,000 officials and hundreds of millions of dollars in total.

It is believed the court, for the moment, considers the trustee technique far too drastic a step. It would be a last resort.

This leaves the simple expedient of contempt action, which can be both civil and criminal. The court can simply say that Hoffa failed to obey its order and must go to jail.

There is strong precedent for such a judicial move. It happened to a bigger giant — John L. Lewis back in 1946. At that time John L. defied a court injunction to call off a coal strike. It was the same court Jim Hoffa defies today.

LEWIS'S JOVIAN thundering suddenly went silent when the Supreme Court affirmed a $10,000 fine levied against him personally by Judge Goldsborough who also had slapped the United Mine Workers with a 3½-million-dollar levy. The high court cut this to $700,000 and gave Lewis five days to end his strike or pay the other $2,800,000 out of his 50-million-dollar union treasury. Even for John L. this was too much. He obeyed the court.

Today, the federal court believes that what the Supreme Court said then still is good law. This, in effect, is what the court said:

In imposing a fine for criminal contempt, a trial judge may properly take into consideration the following: (1) The extent of the willful and deliberate defiance of the court's order (2) The seriousness of the consequences and of the contumacious behavior (3) The necessity of effectively terminating the defendants' defiance as required by the public interest and (4) the importance of deterring such acts in the future.

The court could use this as its guide in its final dealing with Hoffa alone. Or it could jail his entire council. Or fine them personally.

Whichever course the court chooses, it will move in the next three or four months. It simply has decided to prove that its pen is mightier than the sword.

Will Cuba Have Democracy?

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The announced purpose of Fidel Castro's revolution, which threw out the dictatorship of Fulgencio Bastista, was to restore democracay to Cuba. The question now is will it?

The revolutionary government established by Castro — with the Provisional President, Manuel Urrutia, handpicked by him — has dissolved the Cuban Congress and announced it will rule by decree for at least 18 months.

That means—no matter by what name it is called nor how benevolent it may be—Cuba will be under a dictatorship for at least another year and a half. At the end of that time, new elections are supposed to be held.

The stated reason for the 18-month delay is to let new political parties organize so they can compete in the elections.

Just because there will be a dictatorship until then, new factions may arise, even among Castro's followers, because of dissatisfaction with the revolutionary government and the course it follows.

Factions mean disputes and disputes can lead to new civil war.

Castro has pledged that his country will remain a democracy. But the executions being carried out now by his followers against former lackeys and spies of Batista are not in accordance with democratic processes.

The men executed by firing squads have not been given regular trials, with full legal protections. At best they've been given revolutionary trials. Castro justifies them on these grounds:

That "anyone who has killed 15 or 30 people has no right to live." This is Castro passing judgment. It is not a decision reached by democratic process or agreement. It's Castro deciding what's right or wrong.

He has the power to make such decisions because he has the backing of his armed forces, a situation which a political philosopher could reduce to a simple explanation: It's a case of might makes right. But it's not democratic.

At a minimum these executions will leave behind them a trail of bitterness — if not obsession for vengeance—among the families of the men slain by firing squads.

They will make some, perhaps many, Cubans uneasy about the future course of the revolutionary government, just as they have already dismayed many members of the U.S. Congress.

Thus the Castro people, who professed to despise the undemocratic brutality of the Batista followers toward prisoners, are leaving themselves open to accusation of doing the very things they said they wanted to destroy.

Letter To The Editor

After your half - page editorial explaining how we the voters murdered the income tax, will you and the other champions of the tax never learn that we not only knew what we were doing, but that we will do it over and over again until it is clear to everyone.

Your editorials and Mr. Lawrence's statements misrepresent the question until nobody knows what is true and what are lies, because all your readers got was that all new employes and all school guards would be laid off and that the 10 per cent raise could not be paid. But nothing like that happened.

Now I think if the director is half as nice as you and Mr. Lawrence think he is, he should be kept on the job, but at what the voters think he is worth.

Now won't you please write your editorials about things that are of interest and which I hope you know more about than you seem to know about what the common working people think and want.

Inflation Complacency

By David Lawrence

Wage-Price Spiral Crippling Economy

They have argued about such technical things as Senate rules and are preparing to talk about spending more money to send a man to the moon, but there are no signs that Congress is ready as yet to come to grips with the down-to-earth problem which affects the well being of millions of Americans— inflation. Until the American people are thoroughly aroused to the crisis that faces them in the present Congress, the emphasis will still be on secondary matters.

David Lawrence

President Eisenhower puts the case in unequivocal words as follows:

"We must avoid any contribution to inflationary processes, which could disrupt sound growth in our economy.

"Prices have displayed a welcome stability in recent months and, if we are wise and resolute, we will not tolerate inflation in the years to come. But history makes clear the risks inherent in any failure to deal firmly with the basic causes of inflation. Two of the most inportant of these causes are the wage - price spiral and continued deficit finahcing.

"Inflation would reduce job opportunities, price us out of world markets, shrink the value of savings and penalize the thrift so essential to finance a growing economy.

"Inflation is not a Robin Hood, taking from the rich to give to the poor. Rather, it deals most cruelly with those who can least protect themselves.

IT STRIKES hardest those millions of our citizens whose incomes do not quickly rise with the cost of living. When prices soar, the pensioner and the widow see their security undermined, the man of thrift sees his savings melt away; the white collar worker, the minister, and the teacher see their standards of living dragged down.

"Inflation can be prevented. But this demands statesmanship on the part of business and labor leaders and of government at all levels. We must encourage the self-discipline, the restraint necessary to curb the wage-price spiral and except only in critical emergencies we must meet current costs from current revenue."

But will "self-discipline" materialize? What is really needed is courage in Congress. And there will not be action by Congress until there is a people's "lobby" bigger than the labor-union lobby which, by its millions of dollars of contributions, influences the election of enough members of Congress to block remedial legislation.

The headlines have told about the corruption inside some big labor unions. Congress has not passed the necessary legislation to deal with the evil. Instead, many labor-union leaders who are themselves honest are afraid the laws will be used in some way to hurt them.

The cry is that there isn't any need to pass laws because there are only a few guilty ones. But there would be no criminal laws today if the doctrine were accepted that, because the offenders are a minority, no protective steps should be taken by the people against those offenders.

WHAT IS AMAZING is that, after the sensational disclosures last year, the labor unions won more elections for their candidates in Congress than ever before. The President pointed to these disclosures in his State of the Union Message:

"Last January I made comprehensive recommendations to the Congress for legislation in the labor - management field. To my disappointment, Congress failed to act. The McClellan committee disclosures of corruption, racketeering and abuse of trust and power in labor - management affairs have aroused America and amazed other peoples.

"Its disclosures emphasize the need for improved local law enforcement and the enactment of effective federal legislation to protect the public interest and to insure the rights and economic freedoms of millions of American workers.

"Halfhearted measures will not do. I shall recommend prompt enactment of legislation designed:

"To safeguard workers' funds in union treasuries against misuse of any kind whatsoever.

"To protect the rights and freedoms of individual union members, including the basic right to free and secret elections of officers.

"To advance true and responsible collective bargaining.

"To protect the public and innocent third parties from unfair and coercive practices such as boycotting and blackmail picketing."

BUT THE PRESIDENT does not propose any cure for the biggest single virus — labor extortion at the bargaining table — that has really led to the strike fever in America.

The threat of a steel strike this summer is already costing the country many billions in a frustration of planning for plant and equipment.

An economic war that is permitted to damage the public by billions of dollars a year and that keeps sending prices upward — to rob the people of their savings by devaluing the purchasing power of the dollar — needs more drastic action than the President has proposed. But evidently the American people are not yet aroused — so Mr. Eisenhower is fighting an uphill battle alone against the most powerful lobby ever to exert pressure on our national legislators.

A Little Bit Crazy

By Truman Twill

There is no reason to doubt the claim that everyone is a little bit crazy.

As far as I am concerned, the difference between those of us who claim to be sane and others less fortunate than we are who have adjudged otherwise is our ability to skip from one state to the other.

At this very time there is a new idea in the treatment of mental patients based on this skipping ability. If the patients could be stimulated to think about things in areas of their intellects where they have continued to be sane, it is contended, they might stay in balance.

I have been thinking about the subjects on which I admit I am a little bit crazy. There may be others, but these are the ones I am most familiar with.

1. People who low - bridge the kind of people who never have met a payroll. This sets me off because I know of nothing reprehensible about never having met a payroll. Some of us are not employers.

2. The good old days. This phrase is supposed to convey the idea that things are deteriorating. But they were deteriorating in the good old days, too, contrary to the illusions of fat-heads who keep talking about the good old days as if they wanted to turn back the clock.

3. Southern-fried. It is more than my sanity can withstand to be reminded by this and other sicking phrases that sectionalism has been fostered in this country, to the point where a "southern" anything would seem to be a special claim to fame. In this area of my insanity, I concede no superiority to any section of the United States. That is how unbalanced a fellow can get when he goes off his rocker.

4. Legal technicality. I scream like a werewolf every time a thug, traitor, murderer, or rapist is turned loose because some legal beagle spotted a crack in the technical structure of the law and pried it open.

5. Native son. The man with the net comes rushing when this one sets me off. Nobody ever gets to be a native son, except by hindsight. The people who were glad to see him leave town never think of him again unless he does something important.

6. Tipping. I have a sense of persecution whenever I get wedged into one of those sweaty situations where a small potato like me is expected to peel off a bill to stay on the good side of some chiseler who could buy me out with the wad he carries in his wallet.

7. Recording artist. This one makes me turn my face to the wall and refuse nourishment. When I hear a noise in the living room like a cat caught in the washing machine, I know it has something to do with some recording artist who has been awarded a gold record for adding a new and horrible dimension to sound and wants to demonstrate it on TV because of a tie-in with the record company.

8. Smart politician. They have to buckle me into a straitjacket when this one gets within reach. Most of the things that have gone sour in my lifetime have been traceable to smart politicians, meaning the kind who will do anything in the realm of possibility, unrestrained by any sense of ethics.

(All right, doc, you can set me free now. I'm over my seizure.)

Bible Thoughts

Midland Council Accepts Reports

Annual reports of various officers, including Police Chief Ed J. Stefl, were accepted at the meeting of Midland Council Wednesday night in the Borough Building.

Chief Stefl's summary showed 184 arrests were made during 1958 and 59 were discharged, 6 committed to jail, 87 fined, 8 held for court, 18 paid state fines, 6 charges were withdrawn, 2 are pending and none was held for juvenile court. Complaints received totaled 1,677.

—:—

FINES FOR the year totaled $1,434.61 with $920 of the amount collected by Justice of the Peace George Griffin and the rest for parking violations, $514.61. Squire Griffin collected $891 in costs.

Chief Stefl said police cars traveled 61,395 miles during the year, used 7,655.9 gallons of gasoline and 274 quarts of oil.

Gas and oil amounted to $2,355.45 and other expenses were $4,105.14 for a total of $6,460.59.

The annual report of the Municipal Authority by D. H. Craik, manager, which listed members and workers and their salaries or rate of pay, was accepted.

It included annual salaries of $150 to Dr. Zanvel Sigal, chairman, Michael Belaney, L. B. Roach, R. V. Presutti and Sullivan Tonti.

Those on monthly salaries include James Morrison, treasurer, $25; Atty. Masters, as solicitor, $100, and as secretary $50; Steebner, resident engineer, $50; Craik, manager, $625; D. W. McHaffie, bookkeeper, $465, and Dorothy Kukich, assistant bookkeeper, $200.

—:—

HOURLY PAID include R. E. Graham, meterman, and L. D. Hayward, chief filter plant operator, both $2.56; Lloyd Welch, maintenance man, and Daniel Baich, D. R. White, Harless Chamberlain and Felix Granito, filter plant operators, $2.29, and J. D. Coratto, laborer, $1.96.

On a motion by Councilman Lester Trainer, Council approved the re-appointment of Lloyd R. Murphy to a five-year term on the borough Planning Commission. His present term expires Jan. 26.

L. G. ANDRES, member of the Zoning Board of Appeals, was re-elected for a three-year term. The board still is one member short due to the appointment of Joseph Hibbard to Council to fill a vacancy created when Arthur Reed, president, resigned July 31.

Burgess Eli Corak told councilmen he hopes to announce the borough's new tax rates soon. He said a preliminary examination indicates the millage will again be the lowest for any municipality of Midland's class.

He said the budget will have a sound base and the average tax bill will be lower than that of other towns of Midland's size.

—:—

A REQUEST BY Mrs. A. L. Sonnhalter, 935 Ohio Ave., for $348.82 for storm damages to her home last July was denied by Council.

Council acted on the claim after asking Atty. Robert Masters, solicitor, for an opinion on liability.

Masters explained that to be liable it would have to be proved that the borough was responsible for the damage through negligence. He said the storm was "an act of God" and the borough could not be held responsible and could not pay even if authorized.

Under suspension of rules, Council passed an ordinance changing a residential zone of 1.2376 acres at the west end of Midland Ave. to a light industrial zone. The request was made by Daniel Orlando, 1104 Virginia Ave., who expects to install a custard stand next summer.

A PUBLIC hearing was prior to voting on the ordinance and no one protested against the change.

George Kohl, 675 Virginia Ave., was given permission to cut a curb for a driveway at his home under supervision of R. E. Steebner, borough engineer.

Council approved the following December reports:

Beaver County commissioners, tax liens of $9.80; Rudolph Presutti, tax collecter, $158.40 collected and a $11,243.01 balance on the 1958 tax duplicate; Mrs. C. K. O'Hara, borough secretary, receipts of $4,926.53; Joe Stanik, treasurer, $9,983.04 as the general fund balance; Squire Griffin, $50 in fines collected; Chief Stefl, six arrests with five paying fines and one held for court, fines of $189.94 and with those collected by Griffin, totaling $239.94.

Nick D'Innocenzo, sanitary health inspector, reported numerous complaints handled and inspections of Woodlane and Railroad Aves. which were found satisfactory.

Bills were ordered paid on motion of Councilman Joe D'Alesio.

Burgess Corak welcomed 11 members of the Columbian Squires Circle of Midland Council 2005, Knights of Columbus, who attended on a civic cultural assignment. Councilman Harvey Sponcer was absent.

Women's Reserve Proposed For Work With Boy Scouts

LISBON — Plans for creating a non - uniformed group, known as the "Women's Reserve of the Boy Scouts of America," were announced today by Robert Beck of Lisbon, executive of the Columbiana Boy Scout Council.

Beck said the national Executive Board has provided this means for the registration of women other than the 304,134 now serving as den mothers in the Cub Scout program.

He said 422 women are serving as den mothers in the Columbiana Council.

Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, chief executive of the national Boy Scouts, said:

"It has been recognized that many women have played and are playing a silent but important part in making the scouting program available to boys of Cub Scout, Boy Scout, and Explorer age.

"Our national Executive Board has voted to provide an opportunity for those women who so desire to become officially affiliated with the movement in other than den mother capacity.

"We recognize that the Boy Scout movement is, and always has been, a boys' movement, under the active leadership of boys and men and that nothing should be done that will detract from this wholesome relationship. We must maintain the boy-man contact."

Dr. Schuck said a membership card in the Women's Reserve will be issued to any woman who qualifies.

She must be at least 21 and an American citizen or becoming a citizen.

Application will be made in the same manner as local council scouters and she will be registered only on a local council basis.

The women may serve as faculty members of Cub Scout training courses and assist in organizing and training in connection with Cub Scout packs and finance and public relations campaigns.

They will serve as members of mothers or parents clubs and auxiliaries of scout units. They may act as merit badge counselors when men cannot be found. Women employes of the nation's 532 local councils are eligible.

Registered members of the reserve will receive "Scouting," the monthly magazine.

basis in the oil industry by the union but it usually sets the pattern for other contracts on a plant-by-plant basis. The union has asked for a wage hike of 25 cents an hour or 21 cents an hour plus fringe benefits. Sinclair has not offered a wage increase. The average wage now is $2.71 an hour.

In other labor disputes, the nation's longest strike involves 13,000 employes in seven plants of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. Federal mediators are meeting in Philadelphia with representatives of the company and the United Glass and Ceramic Workers Union in efforts to end the strike, which started last Oct. 6.

Seniority rights and incentive pay are believed to be the major issues in dispute. Wages are not involved.

In Los Angeles, 1,000 supermarkets have been closed since Jan. 1 by a strike-lockout. The strike is by the Retail Clerks Union and the lockout by the Food Employers Council, representing the store operators, in retaliation.

The strike - lockout has idled 16,000 persons and has changed the shopping habits of housewives. They do their marketing at 4,500 grocery stores not affected by the walkout.

The clerks have demanded a wage benefit package totaling 82.5 cents hourly spread over a five-year contract. The employers offered a 50-cent package offer. The clerks were paid $2.30 hourly under the old contract.

In the Harvester settlement, a company spokesman said the strike cost the union about $2,600,000 in wages. A union spokesman estimated the UAW strike fund has paid about one million dollars weekly in strike benefits.

The new contract calls for annual pay hikes of 6 cents an hour or 2½ per cent, whichever is greater. Wages under the old contract averaged $2.55.

Sen. Fred Hoffman (R Hamilton) wants the constitution to guarantee a person under sentence of death a right to appeal to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Woman's Arm Hurt By Thief

Pedestrian's Purse Taken On W. 9th St.

A 75-year-old woman suffered an injury to the right arm Wednesday night about 8 when she was knocked off the sidewalk and fell in the street as two young thugs took her purse containing $52.

Mrs. Joe Phillips, 115½ Fenton St., said her purse was grabbed as she walked on W. 9th St., just off Dresden Ave., while returning from a funeral home where she had called to view the body of a friend.

Two young men approached from the rear, she related. One knocked her down and the other grabbed her pocketbook, which also contained some coins and personal papers, she said. Mrs. Phillips said her arm was injured and her clothes were covered with mud when she fell on the street.

Mrs. Phillips screamed to attract attention, but no one appeared to pursue the thieves. She said she saw them last as they passed under a street light at Fenton St., running west on W. 9th St.

A woman invited Mrs. Phillips into a nearby home, then telephoned police. Officers scoured the West End district, but were unable to locate the two thieves.

Siege Of Cold Due Tonight

Temperature To Dip With Snow Flurries

The mild, if rainy, weather is about to end with a sharp drop in the temperature forecast for tonight.

The Ohio weatherman said the mercury will go to 14 to 18 with occasional light snow flurries through Friday.

The wintry weather, with cold and snow, spread from the Northern Rockies to the midcontinent today and was heading East.

The Arctic air covered the Northern and Central Plains and the upper and mid - Mississippi Valley. It was expected to cover most areas, excluding the Eastern seaboard and Southeast states.

Snow accompanied the outbreak of cold along the eastern slopes of the Rockies, with falls in Eastern Colorado, Wyoming and Western Nebraska.

Highways west of Denver were closed. Gusty winds swirled the snow, cutting visibility. Drifts nearly 2 feet deep were reported in the Golden, Colo., area and a foot deep in Cheyenne, Wyo. Four inches of snow was indicated in the region. Lighter falls were reported in the Upper Mississippi Valley and in the Lake Superior region.

Temperatures dropped sharply as the icy air moved into the Northern Plains, with below zero readings in North Dakota and Montana.

The colder air dipped as far south as Oklahoma and the Texas Panhandle.

A dense fog descended on the Ohio Valley Wednesday night with accompanying drizzle, which continued this morning. The mercury drop was expected to cut off the rain this afternoon.

GOV. CECIL H. UNDERWOOD emphasizes a point in his "state of the state" message Wednesday afternoon to the West Virginia Legislature which opened a 60-day session. He asked an additional $37 million annually for roads, $15 million for schools and the creation of a State Economic Recovery Agency. (UPI Telephoto)

County Fairs Delegates To End Meeting

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The men who stage Ohio's county fairs wind up their annual convention here today. They've been at it since Tuesday, shaping plans, signing acts, dreaming up the ideas they hope will attract millions of fairgoers come summer and early autumn.

It's the 34th convention of the Ohio Fair Managers' Assn. and about 1,500 fair officials and concessionaires are attending.

Most of the time is spent in business caucuses, but the delegates also listen to speakers, and among Wednesday's was new Agriculture Director Robert H. Terhune.

He cautioned the fair officials not to overlook any of Ohio's "natural, human and spiritual resources" in working up fair attractions, and he asked them to keep these things in mind about professional entertainment:

Will the entertainer be as popular this summer as he is now. Does he demand a large guarantee? Should the fair try to get entertainers who will appear several times so that those who attend one show can recommend it to another? Will the entertainment compete with local sources of professional entertainment?

"This certainly isn't something for one man to decide," he said. "I want to hear what a great many other people have to say. And I certainly don't intend to dictate to anybody on these matters."

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann: I came to this city from a small town in Canada three months ago. I considered myself fortunate to get a job in a good office in a fine downtown building. Now I'm not certain I belong here.

Please tell me if my ideas are wrong or if I am working in a place where the people are peculiar.

Yesterday when I bent over to pick up an eraser, one of the young men hit me in the posterior with the telephone book. Everyone roared. This sort of thing goes on all the time.

Two weeks ago someone put a mousetrap in my desk drawer and when it snapped it almost scared me out of my wits. Yesterday an artificial snake popped out at me from the file cabinet.

The office manager buys gags from a novelty shop, such as glasses with trick bottoms.

When I complained (after the telephone book incident) they said I was a poor sport and had no sense of humor. Am I humorless or are all American offices like this one? — SMALL TOWN GIRL.

-:-

Dear S.T.G. All American offices are NOT like this. You fell in with a collection of Grade A dingbats. There's nothing funny about being hit with a telephone book — especially when you live in Buffalo where the book is pretty hefty.

I suggest you scout around for another job and leave that loony bin as soon as possible.

Problem Daughter

Dear Ann Landers: Our 15-year-old daughter is unhappy. Because of her constant complaining, everyone in the family is in an uproar.

She wants to quit school, get a job and live alone in an apartment. She claims we are too strict and don't understand her.

We permit her to date on weekends and stay out until midnight. She says this is no freedom at all. We think for a girl of 15 it is a reasonable curfew. Is it?

She hates school and it's a daily battle to keep her from quitting. Sometimes I think it would be a lot easier on all of us if we gave her permission to quit. Your opinion would be appreciated. — EXHAUSTED MOTHER.

Dear Exhausted: Of course it would be easier to throw in the towel and tell your daughter she can do as she pleases. But where did you get the notion that rearing children was supposed to be easy?

Saying yes to your daughter's ridiculous plan would be a high price to pay for peace and quiet around the house. That girl belongs in school. She's a minor and you are responsible for her.

If you and your husband let her use 15-year-old judgment in such a vital matter merely because you're tired of fighting with her, then you will fail her as well as yourselves.

P.S. — Midnight is plenty late for a 15-year-old.

Package Deal

Dear Ann: I sympathize with Sheepskin Sarah who complained about her husband's grammar.

I'm married to a woman who is a good wife and mother. But her poor English and hackneyed phrases irritate me just as Sarah's husband irritates her. You have no idea how boring it is to live with someone who 50 times a day says "I got news for you" or "Golly gee".

She talked like this before we were married so I guess I couldn't have been very bright either.

Now I feel she's beneath me intellectually and I miss the companionship that intelligence offers. Should I be satisfied that she's a good mother and keeps the house clean?

I have a few friends who are in the same boat. Why do these things happen? — SHEEPSKIN SARAH'S BROTHER.

Dear Brother: These things happen because love is sometimes deaf as well as blind. You didn't care how the girl talked before you married her because you were more interested in how she looked.

Now that you are married and have a family — yes, be satisfied that she keeps the house clean and is a good mother. You bought the total package, Buster. (Are you listening, Students?)

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Daily Exercise Can Work Sheer Magic

Exercise can accomplish the seemingly impossible — provided you exercise every day and reach the right muscles.

Ida Jean Kain

Yesterday's startling story about the young woman who weighs 153 pounds and can get into a size 14 sheath no doubt left many of you completely baffled . . . if not downright skeptical. After all, average weight for size 14 is 132 pounds. Intrigued by her letter, I called long distance to get the vital statistics. Let's make this a party line so you can listen in too.

"Are you the young woman who can wear a size 14 sheath?" I inquired of the pleasant voice on the other end of the line.

"Yes, but who is this?" she asked puzzled. She explained afterwards she thought one of her friends must be trying to kid her.

—:—

"HOW TALL are you and how long did it take to lose the 23 pounds?" I asked after explaining I needed the details in order to assure skeptical readers that exercise can work wonders in measurement changes.

"I'm 5 feet 6 tall, and I lost the pounds in a little over two months," she explained. "But it was exercise that did the streamlining," she added.

Then warming up to the subject, "It's kind of hard for me to believe, but my new sheath dress is a size 14, and I can wear a size 14 skirt that my girl friend gave me. The material is a bit stretchy, but still it's a size 14. Understand, I'm a tight 14, but I'm working toward being a perfect size 14," she told me frankly.

Here are the comparing measurements: "before" — weight 175; bust 40", waist 31" and hips 42." "After" — weight 153, bust 38", waist 28", and hips 39".

She exercises only about six minutes a day, but she exercises every day. Regularity is the secret. Here is a rundown of her routine:

Stand up and stretch tall, pulling slim through the middle measurement. Then, holding the upstretch, bend forward and touch fingers to floor, three times, pulling slim between each bend. Then, stretch, twist at the waist, and pulling up - and - slim through the middle measurement, swoop down and touch fingers to the floor at sides of the heel, and repeat this three times on each side, preceding each bend with an upstretch.

Lie flat on back, arms outstretched behind head and, with the sheer force of stomach muscles, come up from the floor and go over and touch toes. (If necessary, anchor feet.) Repeat 15 times.

—:—

SIT ON FLOOR, tailor fashion, legs crossed, palms of hands on floor. Roll back and forth across the hip spread, 15 times. Then, same position with feet slightly off floor, flop thighs together 40 times to tone muscles on inner thighline.

Where did she make the greatest change in her figure? Through the middle. There's the cue, for it's the middle measurement that makes the biggest difference in sizes.

Send long, stamped, self - addressed envelope for illustrated leaflets entitled "Take Your Measure," and "Slim Hips In A Hurry." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Self-Righteous Children Are Disliked

You may have been successful at training your child, say from 3 to 6 or older, in good safety habits, good manners and respect for things that belong to others. Under such conditions, you and he may be faced with a problem. In your zeal to cultivate his good ways you may have pointed out to him less desirable ways of other children in the neighborhood. He may interpret it to mean "See how good I am?" Soon your child may refer to bad ways of other children by implying or stating, "I'm not like that."

By Garry Meyers

When this happens to your child, he has been harmed inside. He has grown conceited, self-righteous, bigoted. Instead of becoming a child that other children will choose to imitate, he will be disliked, ridiculed and avoided by them.

If your child exhibits these tendencies, both parents should map out a long-range, constructive program. Resolve not to dwell on the weaknesses of any other particular child. By this time, your child knows his ways are wrong.

—:—

WHEN YOUR child volunteers to tell you of bad things other children do, tell him, "We just don't talk about such things." Begin to look for good deeds and traits in those other children and often talk of them before your child.

Suppose your child, in his teens, chooses neither to smoke or drink. Almost any parent should be pleased with this child's decision— if he does not act and feel self-righteous about it.

Every youth has to make choices in many situations with other youths. You, his parents, hope he will make wise choices and have the moral stuff to stick to them. In the long run, he can hold to high standards and still win and keep lots of friends if he avoids the notion that he feels superior to others with different standards and ways.

TIMES ARISE when he must choose, and he will do so wisely, stating his choice or personal preference without suggesting condemnation of those who choose differently.

The chief reason so many young people holding to high standards find it hard, and often meet with disapproval and jeers, is that they themselves act and feel self-righteous.

Potters Face Strong Quint At New Philadelphia Friday

Quaker Five Has Rolled To 6-2 Record

East Liverpool's basketball Potters have been rather easy prey for most opponents this campaign and a look at the records indicates that the victory famine won't end Friday night at New Philadelphia.

The Quakers, presently sporting a 6-2 record, have stamped themselves as one of the tougher teams in the Tuscarawas County area and will have a decided advantage on the home boards.

Reserve action will get under way at 7 in Welty Gymnasium.

The Potters, now in a six-game losing streak and 1-9 for the year, figure to be in for another rough night against the Quakers, who are averaging 66.2 points a game.

Philly has plenty of height and one of the top scoring centers in the state in Merle Clum, a 6-5 senior. Clum has scored more than 30 points in three games this year and boasts a 24.7 average, with a total of 198.

Dave Massarelli, a 6-1 senior who was given a berth at end on the third All - Ohio football team, is second leading scorer with 135 points. He holds down one forward spot on the Quaker five, with the other going to Bob Evans, a 6-1 junior.

Coach Leo Benjamin's guards include Jim Eichel, a 5-10 senior, and Steve Seabrook, a 5-8 junior.

Clum has been hampered by an ankle injury, but reports from New Philly indicate that the strong inside scorer will be in top form for the Potter battle.

The Quakers have lost only to ninth - ranked Salem, 89-58, and to Dover, 54-48, when Clum was suffering from the injury. The Quakers are 4-0 for the season on the home boards.

Victories have been over Cambridge, 71-51; Uhrichsville, 65-51; Wooster, 55-45; Louisville, 74-55; Ashland, 85-65, and Sandy Valley, 74-69.

The Philly clash Friday will be the first of two weekend games for Coach John Karaffa's Potters. Midland (10-3) will be at Memorial Auditorium Saturday night.

Potter fans planning to drive to New Philadelphia may take Route 39 to the city square, then drive a short distance on Route 250, which runs past the high school.

In 50 games against New Philly, the Potters have a winning edge of 27 to 23. They triumphed last year, 66-41.

Karaffa indicated Friday night's starring lineup for the Potters will be Ken Cunningham, 5-10, and Bob Mackall, 5-11, at guards, Ray Bigelow, 6-5, at center, and Craig Burbick, 6-2, and Bob Beatty, 6-3, at forwards.

Cunningham, averaging 15.3 points a game, has been sidelined this week with an ankle injury, but will start if at all possible, the Potter coach said.

After 10 games, the standout sophomore shows 153 points on 64 field goals and 25 of 32 free throws — top mark on the squad. The remainder of the scoring shows Mackall with 91 points, Beatty with 62, Jan Allen with 56, Bigelow with 54, Burbick with 35, Ron Clark with 5, Ken Miller with 4 and Phil Chan with 3.

East Liverpool is averaging 50.2 points a game to 59.4 by opponents.

Top-Ranked N. C. State Upset By North Carolina

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

A kid from Pittsburgh clicked on a layup off a pretty pass from a kid from Brooklyn, then another Brooklyn crewcut flipped in two free throws...all within 22 seconds.

It wiped out a top-notch performance by two boys from Philadelphia, two from scattered points in Indiana, and another from Dorcester, Mass.

An all-star game?

Nope, just a neighborhood brawl in Raleigh, N.C. Wednesday night as North Carolina whipped top-ranked North Carolina State 72-68 in an overtime college basketball thriller.

Coaches Frank McGuire and Ev Case, a couple of leading proponents of interstate travel, had themselves another windig while 13,000 watched at Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum.

When it was over, Brooklynite McGuire had indicated to Indianan Case and the basketball world that he's ready to put in another bid for the kind of national championship honors he bagged with his Yankee Tar Heels two seasons ago.

N.C. State, just voted into the No. 1 spot in the weekly Associated Press poll, led most of the way until Tar Heel Ray Stanley (Brooklyn) scored a field goal and two free throws to send the game into overtime at 63-all.

With the score knotted 68-all and 22 seconds remaining, Lee Shaffer (Pittsburgh) took the perfect feed from Doug Moe (Brooklyn) for the winning layup. In the last second, Harvey Salz (Brooklyn) wrapped it up with a pair of free throws.

Dayton, using its five iron men for the second straight game, ran its record to 10-3 with a 60-56 victory over Xavier of Ohio. St. Joseph's (Pa.) made its mark 10-2 by topping St. Francis (Pa.) 82-66, and Virginia Tech, now 9-2, swamped Davidson 91-70 in other feature games of the Wednesday program.

Ray Wins Nod In TV Fight

CHICAGO (AP) — Sonny Ray, with a smashed right hand, and Roque Maravilla, who was in a blackout for seven rounds, went through the motions for 10 rounds Wednesday night.

Ray, the fifth ranked light heavyweight contender, gained a unanimous decision in the Chicago Stadium nationally televised bout.

Ray tagged his Boise, Idaho, opponent with a long right with the first punch he threw in the first round. Maravilla, making his TV ring debut, staggered. A left and another right floored him.

Maravilla came out after taking a nine count, covered up well and weathered it. From then on until the last two rounds, they pumped ineffective shots at each other mostly along the ropes.

Most of Maravilla's action came in the final two rounds, after he found out where he was.

"I didn't remember anything after being knocked down until the end of the eighth round." The 22-year-old former Golden Glover said.

Ray's right hand was swollen badly and X-rays were to be taken to see if there were any broken bones.

"I hit him so hard in the first round I might have broken it," said the 23-year-old Chicagoan.

Judge Frank Clark scored it 48-43 under the five point must system. Judge Lou Capparelli had it 48-42 and Referee Bernard Weissman 47-44. The Associated Press favored Ray 47-44.

NCAA Relaxes Its Rule On Grid Substitutions

LOS ANGELES (AP) — College football in 1959 will have the "wild card" player to follow the famous "lonesome end" of 1958.

The "wild card" player will be a substitute who can re-enter a game as many times as his coach chooses, provided he goes in when the game clock is stopped.

The player could be a key quarterback, a kicking specialist or perhaps a guard carrying instructions from the sidelines.

As a result of rules changes, games should be more wide open, higher scoring and crowd-pleasing.

Such was the hope today of the men who write and rewrite the rule book, the National Collegiate Rules Committee. Their major changes, announced Wednesday after a three-day meeting:

1. Relaxation of the substitution rule.

2. Widening the goal posts—for the first time in the history of the game — from the present inside-the-post distance of 18 feet 6 inches to 23 feet 4 inches, or the outside distance of 19-2 to 24. The posts remain 10 yards back of the goal line.

3. Revisions of penalties, including infractions on tries for the extra point.

Unchanged was the two-point conversion rule.

Acting Chairman H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, serving as head of the committee for the 10th year, said there was considerable sentiment against a return to the two-platoon system.

He explained the "wild card" player, as in a poke game, this way:

"If only one eligible substitute enters the field while the clock is stopped, he will not be recorded as an entry except during an excess time out, such as when a player is hurt.

"However, if more than one substitute enters the field between downs, each sub will be recorded.

"Basically, we are keeping the rule of last year. But it will allow a team to get a man into the game when the clock is dead."

Another change increases the number of times out per half from four to five.

Foxes Get Good News: No Bounty To Be Paid

Columbiana County foxes were wagging their bushy tails in unison today after the good news there will be no bounty on them this year.

County Commissioners have decided they cannot legally pay a bounty because no funds were provided, through an oversight, in the annual budget.

R. Max Gard, president, said state law specifies that such an appropriation must be made at the reorganization meeting or not at all.

The county has been paying a $3 bounty for about six years and it cost $1,935 in 1958 for 645 sets of fox feet turned in at the sheriff's office.

Old Archie, whose age had been estimated at 42, 45 and 49, won the award because of the way he kept getting up the night of Dec. 18 in Montreal. That was the night Yvon Durelle dropped him three times before Archie finished the Canadian in the 11th round.

Chester Whips Kennedy's, 61-56, To Take City Loop Lead

Hunes, Wheatleys Also Record Wins

Chester forged ahead in the City Basketball League race Wednesday night by scoring its second straight victory in tumbling a strong Chuck Kennedy five, 61-56, at East Junior High School.

In other games last night, Hune Co. cashed in at the foul line to whip Local 5047, 46-43, and Wheatley Furniture scored its first victory in the loop by tripping up Alex's Carry-Out, 56-38.

Following last night's action, Chester remained on top of the standings with a 2-0 record, while Hune Co., Local 5047, Wheatley and Kennedy are each 1-1. Alex's has yet to post the first league victory, beaten last week by the Local quint.

Chester's two dimunitive floor men — Ted Robinson and Bud Ceneviva — combined for 29 points to spark the league leaders to the victory over Kennedy's.

Former Washington & Jefferson College star Frank Chan delivered 28 points to keep Kennedy's in contention and grab scoring honors for the night

Robinson hit for 16 points and Ceneviva 13 for the winners. Hulme chipped in with nine, and rangy Jack Green and Pete Johnson seven each. Behind Chan in scoring for Kennedy's were George Hale with nine and Anderson with eight. Towering Phil Hayes had four.

Hune Co., a one - point loser in last week's game, had better fortunes last night in slipping by Local 5047 by three points. Both squads matched field goals with 20 each, but the winners hit six of 18 free throws for the victory.

Local 5047, led by flashy Bob Bingham, made only three of 11 foul shots. The game was close all the way. Ron Weekly and Jim Conrad scored 11 points each to lead the attack of the Hune five. Bingham's 19 points topped the scoring for the losers.

Wheatley Furniture led all the way in jolting Alex's five who scored the lowest total points of the night. Wheatley raced to a 17-6 first quarter lead, and boosted the margin to 42-29 after three periods

Bailey, Bishop and Hull paced the scoring for the winners. Bailey dropped in 19 on nine goals and a foul, while Hull hit for 12 and Bishop 11. Dorsey's 14 points were the top effort for the losers.

Next Wednesday's action will find Hune Co. going against Chester in the first game, Wheatley opposing Local 5047 in the second and Kennedy's meeting the winless Alex five in the finale.

Ford Company Ired By Jobless Aid Ruling

DETROIT (AP) — A Michigan Supreme Court ruling on state jobless benefits has aroused the ire of Ford Motor Co.

The court held this week that 11,000 workers at Ford plants here are entitled to a million dollars in jobless benefits because they were idled as a result of a strike at Ford's Canton, Ohio, forge plant in 1953.

The company told the court Wednesday that in re-defining jobless pay rules, it has "substituted its judgment for that of the legislature and has usurped the legislative function."

Joe Cronin Unofficially Crowned AL President

CHICAGO (AP) — Joe Cronin, one of baseball's most celebrated stars, unofficially has been crowned president of the American League.

An American League screening committee agreed Wednesday that the 52-year-old Cronin should succeed Will Harridge as president of the major league's junior circuit, effective Feb. 1. Harridge, 73, resigned last month.

Cronin is general manager of the Boston Red Sox.

His former acceptance of the league presidency is expected to be approved at a club owners meeting in New York Jan. 31.

Cronin met with the screening committee. He said he was not interested in becoming league president unless certain conditions were met. They were.

The conditions included moving the league office from Chicago to Boston, but retaining a branch office in Chicago.

The branch office would be in charge of Will Harridge, who resigned as league president after 27 years in office.

Still to be confirmed at the Jan. 31 meeting was Corinin's request for a five-year contract at Harridge's salary—$50,000 a year with a $15,000 expense account.

Harris Seen Top Choice As Cronin's Successor

BOSTON (AP) — Stanley R. (Bucky) Harris, 62, a veteran of more than four decades in baseball, appeared the top choice today to succeed Joe Cronin as general manager of the Boston Red Sox.

Harris, ousted as Red Sox manager when Cronin was purchased for $250,000, plus shortstop Lynn Lary, in 1934, has been serving as a special assistant to Cronin and owner Tom Yawkey the past two years.

A former infielder, Harris has managed the Washington Senators, Detroit Tigers, New York Yankees and the Philadelphia Phillies in addition to the Red Sox during his long career.

Mrs. Betty Donovan Rentrop, scholarship chairman, announced Wednesday the association will award two scholarships to girls who plan to attend an Ohio college or university.

The association itself will award one $250 scholarship. A $200 scholarship will be given through the association from funds provided by William C. Mrs. Rentrop said the deadline for filing entries is March 1 and students interested should contact her. She is a reporter for the Cincinnati Post & Times-Star.

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

John Daly Writes For Marie Torre

Because Marie Torre refused to reveal the source of a news item that appeared in her column, she was sentenced to 10 days in jail. While she was away, her friends in television wrote guest columns. This one is by John Daly, vice president in charge of news, special events, sports and public affairs for the American Broadcasting Co.

By JOHN DALY

After talking endlessly for 17 straight days because the New York newspapers weren't around, it seems I'm to do a little more talking now because they're back.

Like everyone else in our highly literate city, I've been reveling in papers for the last two weeks, drinking in the AMs and the PMs and the Saturdays and the Sundays like a man with a thirst.

And the remarkable part of it is I haven't felt disloyal to my own medium of television and radio news in the least. Let's talk about that paradox for a moment.

THE NEWSPAPER strike has exploded, once and for all, the never - very - sensible argument that broadcast news, with its speed - of - light transmission, eventually would replace the poor old daily paper and its antiquated high-speed rotary press.

That argument first reared its fuzzy head along in the mid-1920s, when commercial radio, just beginning to feel its oats, was working into the field of news reporting. And some of the newspapers panicked, refused to run radio listings, tried to pretend that if they just ignored broadcasting it would go away.

Well, it didn't go away. And the funny thing was, the newspapers didn't go away either. On the contrary, publishers found their circulations growing, as listeners were stimulated to buy more papers. We'll talk about that unexpected stimulus in a moment.

Now, all that may sound like ancient history, but, like any self-respecting history, it repeated itself — this time in the late 1940s. The spectre now: Television.

-:-

ONCE MORE some of the less far-sighted newspapers tried to ignore it; once again the cooler heads didn't even put up a fight. Instead, they repeated a tactic developed in the early days of radio; they began running regular features and listings of TV broadcasts.

As public interest in the fabulous electronic infant grew, they added TV pages.

Yet until the strike, I suspect that there were few newspapermen indeed who didn't suspect the broadcast side of removing readers from the newsstands and bread from their mouths.

That's over now. The press knows at last what the public and the TV-radio newsman has known for a long time: There's no substitute for a newspaper. (There's no substitute for TV-radio news either, although I hope we don't have to go off the air for 17 days to prove it.)

BUT THE PRESS still must face a few home truths about its function in an electronic world.

The newspaper that thinks it can "beat" us with news is kidding itself. No paper in the world can get an extra on the street in much less than an hour — and the economics of an extra are terrifying. But I can get a bulletin on the air, inexpensively, in seconds.

The great lesson of the newspaper strike is that after I read the bulletin, people are going to want to read two or three columns of print about it in the newspapers.

The point is, you see, that we've got the speed, but you've got the room. It would take us an entire Sunday to broadcast the Sunday Herald Tribune. Of course it's physically impossible to speak as rapidly as the listener can read; reading speeds are many times faster.

There's an important retention factor, too; having it down in black and white means the reader can skip around a story, reread a paragraph here, absorb an astronomical figure about taxes or moon orckets there. He can put the paper down and come back to it; he can select which particular stories he wants to read.

IN OTHER WORDS, we don't compete. At our best, in fact, TV-radio and the press mesh so perfectly that the American people are by far the best informed in the world — which, like the truism that he's a jolly good fellow, nobody can deny.

We go for speed in America; we like to hear our news seconds after it happens. We like immediacy, too, like to see "live" pictures of the news as it breaks. But then we want the details, the 1,500 words, the sidebars — we want the newspaper.

After all, as some cynic has remarked, if that Chinese fella thought one picture was worth 10,000 words, why didn't he say it with a picture?

Health Board To Hold Reorganization Meeting

Burglar Ransacks Beechwood Home, But Gets Nothing

A Beechwood man told police his home was ransacked thoroughly Tuesday night by a burglar who apparently left empty-handed.

Austin Conley, 241 Haywood St., said the intruder entered his home between 8:30 and 9:30. The burglar cut or tore a screen on a rear door, then opened the inner door, which was unlocked, he said.

The burglar ransacked the home, searching closets and drawers, but a check showed nothing missing, Conley reported. The same intruder apparently attempted to enter the home at first via an outside cellar door, as the nails had been pulled loose from a hasp. The intruder apparently gained entrance to the cellar, but was halted by a locked door leading into the first floor, Conley told police.

Meanwhile, Floyd Stansbury, 409 Grant St., told police his auto was looted about 4:22 a. m. Wednesday while parked near his home. The thief took a 670-x-15 size tire, a soldering gun and a radio tube tester, he said.

Fire Damages Garage

EAST PALESTINE — A garage at the home of Ralph Wilson, 120 Garfield St., was damaged by a $300 fire Tuesday night about 10, according to Fire Chief Glenn Libert, who said the cause has not been determined. Wilson managed to move his car out but the interior of the structure was burned. About 18 firemen fought the blaze for an hour.

Union Lifts Suspension For Striker's Officers

The suspension of officers of the Beaver County State, County and Municipal Employes Union 1111 will be lifted and they will be returned to their positions, Edward P. Daley, regional union director, announced.

Daley met with members of the union at the Penn-Beaver Hotel in Rochester Tuesday night.

Lewis Stevens, Department of Highways secretary, told the group by telegram that job responsorship of the present employes would not be necessary in advancing from one job to another.

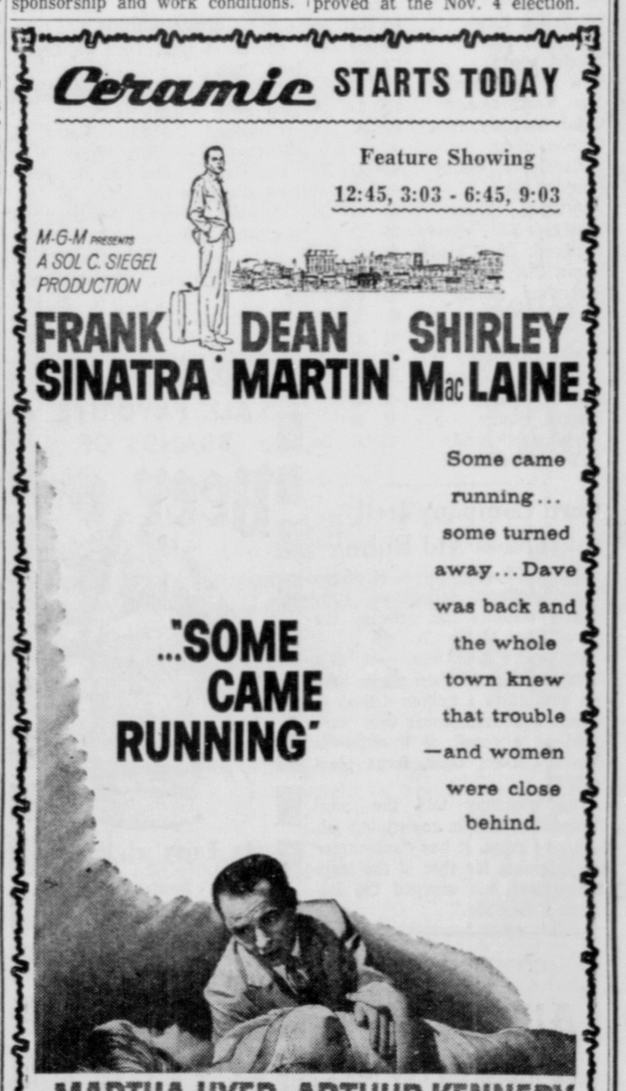

About 180 highways workers returned to work yesterday morning after a threat of summary dismissal issued by Stevens. The workers have struck twice since last Friday over job promotion sponsorship and work conditions.

Lisbon Board Awaits School Addition Plans

Youngstown architects, expect to complete plans for the six - room addition to Lincoln School late this month, the Board of Education has been advised.

The board hoped to receive the plans by today so it could advertise for bids. Supt. Loren Early said it is now expected that the contracts can be let late in February or early March. Completion will be stipulated by the start of next term.

Bonds for the project were approved at the Nov. 4 election.

Harry Rowley and Lester Hamilton were elected elders and Stewart Boyd and Elsworth Rardin, trustees, all for three - year terms.

The 1959 proposed budget of $10,000 was approved.

Blair Addresses Westgate Group

Paul Blair, assistant superintendent of schools, spoke on the "Reading Program In Elementary Schools" at a meeting Tuesday night of the Westgate Elementary Parent-Teacher Association.

William Persohn, publicity chairman, was authorized to purchase a scrapbook. Mrs. Lee Persohn, special projects chairman, said plans are being discussed for holding a musical program by the students. Proceeds will be for the Child Counseling Center and school guards.

Mrs. Dale Franklin said the program has not been scheduled for the meeting Feb. 10 in the all-purpose room. The executive committee will meet Feb. 4 at 7:30 p. m. in the library.

Mrs. Ralph Widger gave the secretary's report. Mrs. Mildred McGregor, principal, led the group in the Lord's Prayer for the opening.

Ralph Widger was master of ceremonies for a cake walk. Proceeds went to homeroom mothers. Mrs. Robert Calhoun, chairman, and Mrs. Robert Hamilton and Mrs. Kenneth Persohn were in charge.

Beaver County TB Group Will Continue Patch Testing

The Beaver County Tuberculosis Association of Beaver has agreed to continue its program of patch testing.

Ralph Jewell, superintendent of Midland schools, recommended the patch testing program be continued and that school districts assume the responsibility of administering intradermal tests to positive reactors.

Dr. William T. Rice of Rochester seconded Jewell's motion.

Miss Elma C. Graham, executive director, said that 27,031 Beaver County school children were given TB patch tests in 1958. A total of 759 children, or 3 per cent, reacted.

She said the children who reacted represent potential cases unless afflicted persons are found with whom they are in contact.

The association's Board of Directors praised Mrs. John Young of Brighton Township and her committee of 156 volunteers who helped prepare letters containing sheets of Christmas Seals for mailing.

Dr. D. W. Gressly of Beaver was chairman of the 1958 Christmas Seal sale.

Dr. Ruth Wilson of Beaver, president, said, "It is important that every tool known should be employed and no stone left unturned until TB is controlled. The TB patch test is one tool — a most important one — in this field."

Adults may received chest X-rays next Thursday at the Rochester General Hospital. X-rays are given at the hospital on the fourth Thursday of the month except for November and December.

Hancock Short In Meeting Tax Goal Set By State

Hancock County collected 45.05 per cent of its non-utility property tax in 1958, against the state goal of 50 per cent, according to an appraisal survey prepared for the State Legislature at Charleston.

Hancock thus must boost its assessments to 50 per cent of the appraised values by levy time Aug. 1 to avoid penalties.

The 55 counties pushed collections of their non-utility tax potential for schools up almost another 3 per cent last year.

The statewide average was 47.49 per cent of the potential, with a tax income of $16,179,428 anticipated on 1958 assessments of non-utility properties. Comparable 1957 figures were 44.58 per cent and $15,450,175.

Twenty counties — as compared to 32 a year earlier and 41 in 1956 — still remained short, however, of the local share amounts for which they are held under the state school aid formula.

A county is held for 47½ per cent of its tax potential on non utility property, computed by applying tax rates to valuations set by an annual Tax Department appraisal survey; and 97½ per cent of public utility valuations set by the Board of Public Works.

The newest survey, which was on legislators' desks as a new 60-day session began Wednesday, also showed that 20 counties face penalty losses in state aid if they don't further boost non-utility assessments by Aug. 1.

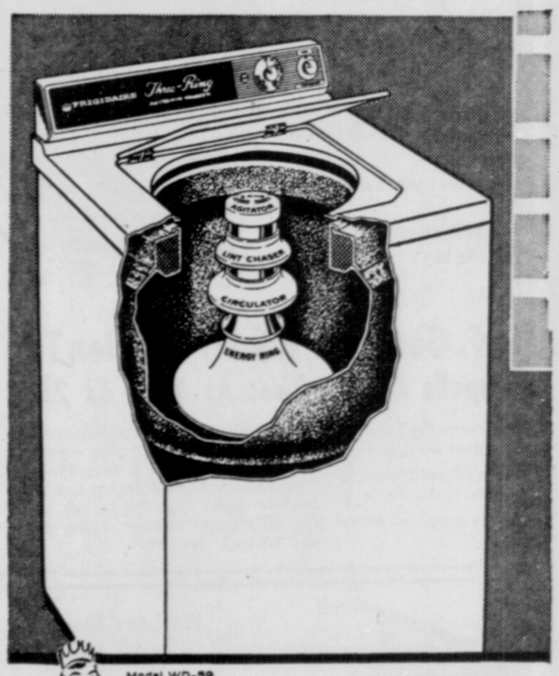

The appraisal survey annually serves as a basis for computation of state school aid allocations for counties, and also is an essential part of a 1955 act setting up penalties for failures to get assessments to certain levels.

Congregational and corporation officers were named at the annual meeting held Wednesday night at the First Presbyterian Church in Wellsville.

The sessions followed a cover-dish dinner. About 75 were present. Mrs. Noble's Sunday School Class served.

Other reports were Mrs. Arthur Wolfe, pulpit flower fund; Rev. Fletcher, minister's report, and Frank Grafton, chairman, nominating committee.

The 1958 financial report on the building fund was read. It was reported repairs had been made to the kitchen and the minister's study was carpeted.

Plans were made for extensive repairs to the organ. It was announced repairs will be made to the outside of the church and manse, that the sanctuary is to be carpeted and that several other projects are contemplated during the remainder of the 150-week building fund period which will end in 1960.

The 1959 budget was adopted with minor revisions.

Mrs. Helen Dickey was re-elected church treasurer for another year.

Collections Drop

CLEVELAND (AP) — U. S. Customs collections in Ohio in the last half of 1958 totaled $6,724,311, down slightly from the $6,939,556 collected in the last half of 1957. Miss Albina R. Cermak, collector of customs, said the drop resulted from a change in the Post Office's method of accounting, under which collections on mail imports now go to a central agency in New York.

New Housing Boss Facing Major Row

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's new housing boss, Norman P. Mason, will step squarely into the middle of a first-class row shaping up between Congress and the administration. He says he doesn't mind at all.

Mason told a reporter today that "anyone with a little fighting spirit and red blood in his veins" should welcome the give and take that goes with presenting a controversial program to a critical Congress. That's the way democracy works, he said.

The controversy in this case: the extent of government housing programs under Eisenhower's efforts to hold down spending. Democratic critics have proposed more spending for Housing.

Mason, now head of the Federal Housing Administration, was nominated by Eisenhower to head the parent Housing and Home Finance Agency. The 62-year-old Massachusetts Republican will change offices as soon as the Senate confirms his nomination.

The top HHFA post is being vacated by Albert M. Cole, who made it plain to newsmen he won't be at all sad to miss this year's give and take on Capitol Hill.

Cole will become an aluminum company executive.

Mary Baker Eddy, founder of Christian Science, was married three times.

Among 63 Measures Introduced

Bills Proposed To Repeal West Virginia's Pop Tax

CHARLESTON (AP) — Bills to repeal a controversial 1958 extension of the state pop tax to powders and syrups used for making soft drinks at home were introduced into both the House and Senate today.

They were among at least 63 proposals sent into the two houses as the Legislature swung into the second day of a 60-day session. The House received 38 bills and the Senate was certain to get at least 25.

The pop tax extension repeal was proposed in the House by Dels. Hobart Booth Jr. (D-Fayette) and Herbert Schupbach (D-Wetzel); and in the Senate by President Ralph J. Bean (D-Hardy).

Bean joined with Senate Minority leader John E. Carrigan (R-Marshall) to introduce a 15 million-dollar school support program developed by the State Education Department and the West Virginia Education Assn., and embodying initial goals outlined by the West Virginia Council on Education.

The proposal, among other things, would put an additional 7½ million dollars into state school aid, with 70 per cent of the new money to be used only for instructional purposes; and another 7½ million into an incentive fund to reward counties for good jobs of helping finance their school systems.

Still another group of Senate bills, introduced by Bean and Carrigan, would clarify the legislative auditor's responsibility for a post-audit of expenditures of legislative appropriations. The bills also would remove some duplications.

They would accomplish such objectives as removal of the State Auditor's authority to make an audit of the Tax Commissioner's office, and limiting of the tax commissioner's supervision of public offices to local governmental agencies.

Another would transfer from the tax commissioner to the legislative auditor responsibilities for examination, listing and disposition of securties, coupons and bonds.

Bean introduced a bill which, like the post-audit measures, originated in the Legislature's special study committees. It would revamp somewhat the present Department of Finance and Administration and spell out its duties in new detail.

Among other things, the bill would make the term of the director—now six years—of four years' duration to correspond with that of the governor; remove the governor from the agency's council of finance and administration, and abolish two of the present five divisions.

The bill would eliminate the present central accounting and personnel divisions, but would retain those of the budget, purchasing and general services.

Del. W. E. Chilton (D-Kanawha) introduced in the House the civil service bill passed by the 1957 session but vetoed by Gov. Underwood. The proposal was reintroduced in the same form as sent to the governor two years ago.

Officers Elected By Rural Church

Officers were elected at the annual congregational meeting of the Fairview Presbyterian Church of Pughtown Monday night. A dinner and hymn sing followed business.

Elected following a report by a nominating committee headed by James Gracie were Fred Miller and Thomas Pugh, Session; Robert Swain, William Flurkey II and David Wern, deacons; Mrs. Helen Huff, Willis Richmond, William McPherson and Robert Casagranda, trustees.

Mrs. Huff will continue as treasurer and financial secretary. Lester Miller was elected congregational chairman to succeed John Mayhew and Miss Dorothy Richmond was elected secretary of the congregation.

Mrs. Paul Wern led devotions. John Mayhew presided. Reports were presented by various committees. The meeting closed with benediction by the Rev. Flurkey, pastor.

Lincoln Group Hears Salvation Army Talk

"The History of the Salvation Army" was the topic of Mrs. William Murtaugh, guest speaker at the meeting of the Lincoln Home and School Association Tuesday night. She was introduced by Robert Goodman, president.

Preceding the meeting parents conferred with the teachers in their respective rooms.

Mrs. Marvin Kinsey, delegate to the PTA Federation, gave a report on a meeting held Monday.

The attendance banner was won by Grade 3-A with Miss Helen Hannahs as teacher and Grade 5-A, Mrs. Beryl Lightner, teacher. Thirty-five were present.

The next meeting is Feb. 10.

Sales Tax Agents To Assist Vendors With 1958 Reports

Agents of the State Sales Tax Department will be stationed in five Columbiana County communities Jan. 27-30 to aid vendors in preparation of sales tax reports for the last half of 1958, which must be filed by Jan. 31.

The schedule is: Wellsville City Hall, Jan. 27; East Liverpool City Hall, Jan. 28-30; Keller Hardware at Columbiana, Jan. 28; Salem City Hall, Jan. 29, and Courthouse at Lisbon, Jan. 30.

Delinquent filing of a semi-annual return leaves the vendor liable to a penalty of $1 for each day the report is overdue, according to the Tax Department.

When filing a return, vendors are required to take along a copy of the 2-58 sales tax report, a copy of their last return and a record of their sales tax and prepaid tax receipts purchased during the period for which the return is filed.

Failure to file a return cannot be justified by the fact the individual did not hold a vendor's license for the full period July 1-Dec. 31, was not open for business during that period or made no taxable sales, the department said.

Church Will Observe Religious Liberty Day

Annual Religious Liberty Day will be observed Saturday at 11:30 a. m. service in the Seventh-Day Adventist Church. The pastor, Elmon H. Roy, will speak on "The Gift of Freedom."

The Scripture reading will be from Psa. 94:11-23 and a prayer will be offered for the preservation of freedom.

The congregation will give an offering to be used for the distribution of "Liberty," a magazine of religious freedom, to public leaders throughout the community.

Sabbath School will begin at 10 a. m.

Prayer service will be held Friday at 7:30 p. m. on the topic, "Snares of Satan."

LaCroft Group Names Chairman For Carnival

Arthur Lightfoot was named chairman of the annual school carnival to be held Saturday, March 21, at a meeting of the LaCroft Parent Teacher Association Tuesday night.

He was appointed by the executive committee. Paul Smith, finance chairman, reported the Sunshine Boys quartet of Steubenville will appear March 7 at the Memorial Auditorium.

Mrs. Phyllis Moore conducted a discussion on child study and a film was screened on "Skippy and the Three R's."

James Steiner, president, conducted business. Mrs. Beth Steiner reported on the PTA Federation meeting.

The next meeting will be Feb. 10.

Franko Bows To Court Ruling

Ousted Youngstown Judge Hints He'll Run For Mayor

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Ousted from the municipal bench after a legal fight, Frank R. Franko hints he will run for mayor.

He bowed Wednesday night to an Ohio Supreme Court ruling which ordered him "ousted from this day forward."

Frank X. Kryzan, a Democrat, was elected mayor here in November, 1953, at the same time that Franko gained office as municipal judge. They are political enemies, and there have been reports that Franko would run against Kryzan in the next Democratic primary.

Franko did not specifically mention the mayoralty in a statement he issued Wednesday night denouncing the state court's action. What he said was:

"I must seek the truth not through the judiciary but by the process of democracy with the help of the electorate. Justice is too expensive to obtain. It is better that I expend my money in a different political manner in my future endeavors."

Franko had to leave the bench because he was under indefinite suspension as a member of the bar, and state law says municipal judges have to be attorneys. Monday, the U. S. Supreme Court turned down an appeal of his suspension. Late Wednesday, the state court acted on a removal action started by the attorney general at the request of the Mahoning County bar.

It was in June, 1957, that the county bar association filed charges against him. He was accused of using his municipal office to advance his political aims while running, for county prosecutor. Specifically, he was charged with fixing traffic tickets—including some of his own—and of sending political literature to persons he had given light sentences in Municipal Court.

Franko contended Wednesday night that only the day before he received a letter from the State Supreme Court saying his case would be heard Feb. 5. Actually that was a maneuver connected with his appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court, which turned him down Monday.

"The reversal would indicate a complete disregard for the constitutional right of due process and equal protection clauses of the State and Federal Constitutions," his statement said.

On the original charges, Franko was given a hearing here in July, 1957, and before the Ohio Supreme Court a year ago. Last May, the court suspended him indefinitely from the practice of law. That means he could not apply for reinstatement for five years, and then would have to take a state bar examination.

He had another year to go on the municipal bench.

2 Staff Officers Named For Coast Guard Auxiliary

Two staff officers were appointed at a meeting of Flotilla 7 of the Coast Guard Auxiliary Wednesday night at the East Liverpool Yacht Club.

Named by Victor Carosiello, commander, were Otis Weekley of Wellsville and Nile Blackmore of Smiths Ferry. This was the first meeting of 1959.

Paul Rowland, training officer, outlined plans for a forthcoming training program. It will consist of advance training for present members and basic training for qualifying recruits.

Rowland said instruction will be held on navigation, seamanship, knot tying, compass reading, courtesy afloat and rules of the river. The auxiliary promotes safe boating.

It was announced all inspections and examinations of craft will be under the supervision of Clarence Crytzer, examiner of motor craft.

Plans were outlined for an installation banquet Feb. 4 at the Travelers Hotel. Capt. R. W. Parkins of McKeesport will attend.

The next meeting will be Jan. 28.

Measuring Of Wheat Slated In Hancock

C. C. Herron, Hancock County Agricultural and Conservation Stabilization chairman, urged farmers to co-operate with U. S. Department of Agriculture crop reporters as the work of measuring the 1959 wheat crop gets under way.

Before any farm visits are made to determine wheat acreage, farmers will be mailed postal cards on which they will be asked to report the number of acres seeded to wheat for grain and whether or not they intend to apply for price support on the wheat. The cards will be mailed about Feb. 1.

Salem Will Be Host For Dairy Institute

LISBON — The annual Columbiana - Mahoning County Dairy Institute will be held Wednesday, Jan. 28, at the Masonic Temple in Salem, according to Albert Pugh, county extension agent in agriculture.

Speakers will be D. D. McGrew, Lester Arnold and Donald E. Zehr of the Agriculture Extension Service at Ohio State University and Wayne Hostetler, Orrville farmer.

The event, beginning at 10 a. m., is sponsored by the Columbiana - Mahoning County dairy committee in co-operation with the Agriculture Extension Service.

Pay Raises Suggested For Classified Workers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The staff of the Ohio Legislative Service Commission suggests pay raises totaling almost 8 million dollars a year for an estimated 26,000 of Ohio's 41,000 classified employes.

The suggestion is contained in a partial and preliminary report submitted Wednesday to a commission study committee on personnel problems. The committee will make recommendations to the commission, which in turn will make its suggestions to the Legislature.

Cerebral Palsy Group Will Screen New Film

Plans to screen a new cerebral palsy film were made at the meeting of the Parental Group of the Columbiana County Affiliate of Cerebral Palsy Association Wednesday night at the Mary Patterson Memorial headquarters.

Mrs. Lucille Campbell, physical therapist for the clinic, will give the commentary at the meeting Jan. 28.

Members counted tax stamps collected for revenue.

Mrs. Martha Garren is president.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Janice Southall and Mrs. Phyllis Hupp.

The social committee for the next meeting will be Mrs. Donald Mahon and Mrs. Garren.

Teamsters And Labor Heads Facing Probe By Grand Jury

CLEVELAND (AP)—More than a score of Cleveland Teamsters Union and other labor leaders reportedly have been subpoenaed for a federal grand jury investigation which opens here Monday.

Federal authorities have been working quietly on the probe, and it was through those who have been subpoenaed that the first word of the investigation came out Wednesday night.

Government sources in Washington confirmed that there will be a grand jury investigation involving Cleveland labor leaders but declined to divulge details.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer said it had learned 20 or more Teamsters Union leaders have been subpoenaed, as well as three officers of the Cleveland AFL-CIO. They are to appear as witnesses.

The AFL-CIO leaders subpoenaed are William Finegan, executive secretary; William Goldberg, treasurer, and Thomas E. McDonald, chairman of the board.

Names of the Teamsters' leaders subpoenaed could not be learned.

AFL - CIO leaders have been ordered to bring with them all books and records of the old Cleveland Federation of Labor pertaining to payments by the Teamsters Union into special funds of the CFL.

Internal Revenue Service agents served subpoenaes, indicating that income tax affairs will be among the matters investigated.

Income tax returns of several union leaders here reportedly have been under scrutiny by the Internal Revenue Service.

Jurist To Learn Fate In Defiance Of Rights Group

MONTGOMERY, Ala. AP)—An Alabama jurist learns today what price—if any—he must pay for defying agents of the U.S. Civil Rights Commission and a federal court order.

A hearing was expected to determine whether Circuit Court Judge George C. Wallace will be punished for not obeying a decree to show disputed voter records to commission agents.

The decision is up to U.S. Dist. Court Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. Johnson may decide that the purpose of his order, if not the letter, has been fulfilled. The registration files in dispute have been turned over to civil rights investigators, though not by Wallace.

Grand juries of Barbour and Bullock counties — which Wallace hurriedly empaneled this week and to which he gave the records —made the files available for inspection. Wallace told the jurors they could do what they wanted to with the records.

Commisssion agents were said Wednesday night to have finished checking the files for evidence of discrimination against prospective Negro voters in the two rural counties.

Wallace's rebellious action was originally scheduled for hearing Wednesday but Johnson granted federal attorneys a 24-hour delay.

Lie Tests Seen Clearing Pair In Wood's Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Lie detector tests given two men appear to clear them of any guilt in the death of former television newscaster Ed Wood.

The two are Carl Oscar Lewis, 28, and Robert G. Edwards Jr., 35, both of Columbus. Lewis has admitted that he and another man still at large robbed Wood of some money and personal articles just before his death early Thursday. However, polygraph tests supported statements that Wood was alive when the men left him, authorities said.

Stabbed To Death

CLEVELAND (AP) — A double stabbing in an East Cleveland home Wednesday night resulted in the death of Mrs. Velma McKinney, 29, and critical injuries to her former landlord, Ralph Millard, 64, a painter. The attack was at his home. A roomer there, Ray F. Burrows, said Mrs. McKinney, Millard and another man were watching television together. He said he heard screams and saw the two stagger from the living room.

Ake Steps Up Today As U.S. Attorney

CLEVELAND (AP)—Russell E. Ake, 50-year-old chief assistant U. S. attorney, steps up to the post of U.S. attorney today.

Ake will be sworn in by Federal Judge Paul Jones to succeed Sumner Canary who resigned effective today.

Ake, who lives in Canton, was appointed Wednesday by the five judges of the district for an interim term of indefinite length. He is expected to receive a permanent appointment from President Eisenhower.

Ake was in a private law firm and had been a part-time assistant city solicitor in Canton before coming to the U.S. attorney's office in 1954.

Lorain Assures Pay

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Lorain City Council Wednesday night passed a temporary ordinance appropriating $143,212 from the miscellaneous fund, thus saving 85 city workers from a moneyless payday. The temporary appropriation for January was necessary because of delay in preparing the annual appropriation ordinance for the miscellaneous fund, from which the 85 are paid regularly.
